

THE GREAT GLOBAL WARMING SWINDLE

States and the media bought by large investment funds tell us that climate change is caused by carbon dioxide (CO₂) from the smoke of cars, planes and factories; and by the methane from cow gases. But, if you listen to independent media and watch the documentary "The Great Global Warming Swindle" on YouTube, you will see that more and more leading scientists are announcing that:

- CO₂ produced by man and methane emitted by livestock are irrelevant to the greenhouse effect. None of this influences the weather;
- volcanoes, dying vegetation, fallen tree leaves in autumn, animals, bacteria and the oceans produce tens of times more CO₂ than all the cars, planes and factories;
- Earth's climate is always changing: our planet warms and cools cyclically; We cannot change these warming and cooling, because they are caused by solar activity, which also changes cyclically. Watch the documentary and you will see all the evidence.

Moreover, the independent press and the documentary "The Dimming, Full Length Climate Engineering Documentary" show how the governments of many countries manipulate the weather using different techniques to prevent it from raining. This is called climate geoengineering. In this way, they artificially cause drought and heat so that you believe that we are in a climate crisis. What are they doing this for? To tell you that the solution is to reduce CO₂ and methane emissions, which is an excuse for the United Nations (UN) to take away your car, take away your animal feed, eliminate farmers and ranchers and provoke wildfires to put solar panels and mills on those lands, which is a gigantic business. They also want to reduce your freedom of action and movement, deindustrialize, destroy the economy, bankrupt the self-employed, generate unemployment, reduce your purchasing power, charge more taxes and produce scarcity of water and food to do business with said scarcity. That is why they empty reservoirs and demolish the dams that contain the water. They throw the dammed water into the sea and generate scarcity. You know that the UN is a political entity and that politicians around the world, no matter what party they represent, do not want your well-being. They seek to make your life worse, put prohibitions on you, control you, monitor you and impoverish you, so that they can get richer and have more power over you.

The solution to bring down this scam and maintain our freedom is to find out through independent media and NOT obey the rules they set with the excuse of climate change. DO NOT obey low emission zones or limits on energy use or the carbon footprint or any regulation that is justified in climate change. DO NOT obey. This is how in India, Gandhi and the rest of the population peacefully threw out the English and became independent. By NOT obeying.
